Here are 10 good reasons to shout for joy that we are Catholic.

Dear Parishioners,

We've all heard the saying "Life is a race, Life is a journey". In today's second reading from Hebrews 12:1-4 we hear about the journey of Faith.

The reading focuses on keeping our eyes on Jesus as we run our race in life. It is very easy to "grow weary and lose heart" when confronted with the challenges that we all face: illness, death of loved ones, unemployment, all the news we hear can dishearten anyone.

Jesus, who is without sin, being the perfect model for us suffered unimaginably physically and spiritually on the cross. He took on the Father's mission for Him for the sake of us poor sinners and in doing so showed us how to carry our crosses always keeping in sight the joy that was before Him.

A runner knows they must remove any burdens that will drag them down in a race. What holds us back the most in life is the weight of sin that we carry and brings us down. But we are not without hope, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, given to us by Jesus through the Apostles, provides us with great graces to strengthen us in our race, our journey of life and faith.

Finally, we also are blessed to have been surrounded by "so great a cloud of witnesses", those who have gone before us, such as the Saints, those canonized and those we may have known in life that are not necessarily recognized by the Church but maybe a grandparent, aunt, friend who by their example in life ran their race looking to Jesus. They are cheering us on as they completed their race with the great hope of the unbelievable joy to come..

Let us always look to Jesus and we can be sure that we are on the right path.

A note to our Parishioners: WE NEED YOUR HELP!!

Please be advised we are in full swing for the Carnival scheduled for Thursday, September 12th-15th the times are listed on the next pages.

This event can only succeed with your help! You are the St. Michael's Parish family, please contact us at the Rectory or sign up after the Sunday masses for any volunteering you can do.

Thank you and God Bless!
Fr. Minhyun Cho

1. The Blessed Mother. She was at the foot of the cross and understands how to console suffering victims and still love the wayward. And through the rosary, our Blessed Mother can do some real damage to the evil.

2. We get to call out sin. Sin has to be done in secret or we'll notice because we aren't the sort of church that says, "Yeah, so what?" Sure, there's some mind bending going on, but we've got the teachings and know how to use them.

3. The angels and saints aren't going anywhere either. Feast days, intercession, lives of the saints, novenas to them.... Our heavenly family is hanging tight with us because guess what? They are Catholic too!

4. Catholic media rocks and so do their listeners. Who is at the forefront of wanting to get to the truth no matter if it hurts? Catholic media! And us too. That's a sign of health; be not afraid to get to the root of the problem.

5. St. Michael the Archangel. I know the angels and saints were already mentioned, but this guy has his own prayer. St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle!

6. Humility. When we are down, faith and the saints teach that it's a holy place. Whether it's sneers over scandal or just a run-of-the-mill downturn, rather than feel like we missed the mark on the Prosperity Gospel, we can make ourselves comfortable as we rest in the Lord, who humbled himself. "And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross, (Philippians 2:8).

7. Nuns in habits. This might seem awfully random here, but whenever I see one, it makes me feel good to spot a family member.

8. The Holy Eucharist. The body and blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ, the source and summit of our Christian life—right here.

9. Universal. Same Mass, same readings daily around the world. Huge.

10. We've got it all. We aren't short-changed a bit. We have all seven sacraments, devotions such as Divine Mercy and the Rosary, adoration, holy water to bless all things... the all-inclusive package. But even still, holiness is not exclusive to our Church. We've simply got less excuses: "From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked," (Luke 12:48).

So, indulge your Catholic love. Even in the midst of bad news, we still have good news. And among those who know that well, it's not hard to keep on keeping on. It is our only route.

AUGUST 22ND, 2019
THE FEAST OF THE
THE BLESSED VIRGIN
MARY

This week we celebrate the Feast of the Queenship of Mary.

Pope Pius XII established this feast in 1954. But Mary's Queenship has roots in Scripture.

At the Annunciation, Gabriel announced that Mary's Son would receive the throne of David and rule forever. At the Visitation, Elizabeth calls Mary "mother of my Lord." As in all the mysteries of Mary's life, Mary is closely associated with Jesus:

Her Queenship is a share in Jesus' kingship. We can also recall that in the Old Testament the mother of the king has great influence in court.

The feast is a logical follow-up to the Assumption and is now celebrated on the octave day of that feast. In his 1954 encyclical To the Queen of Heaven, Pius XII points out that Mary deserves the title because she is Mother of God, because she is closely associated as the New Eve with Jesus' redemptive work, because of her preeminent perfection and because of her intercessory power.

Let's strive to make Mary the Queen of our hearts as we strive to imitate Mary and ask for her powerful intercession

SAINT ROSE OF LIMA
LIMA
Feast Day
August 23rd

A member of the Third Order of Saint Dominic in Lima, Peru, who became known for both her life of severe asceticism and her care of the needy of the city through her own private efforts. A lay member of the Dominican Order, she was declared a saint by the Catholic Church, being the first person born in the Americas to be canonized as such.

Saint John Eudes
Feast Day

Saint John Eudes was a French Roman Catholic priest and the founder of both the Eudists and the Order of Our Lady of Charity. He was also a professed member from the Oratory of Jesus and was the author of the proper for the Mass and Divine Office of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus Christ and the Blessed Virgin. Eudes was an ardent proponent of the Sacred Hearts and dedicated himself to its promotion and celebration; the Masses he compiled for both Sacred Hearts were later said for the first time both in his lifetime. He preached missions across France including Paris and Versailles while becoming known as a popular evangelist as well as a sought-out confessor and preacher. Father Eudes was also a prolific writer and wrote on the Sacred Hearts while also condemning the Jansenists in favour of full support for the pope.
