Our Pastor
Fr. Minhyun Cho

Dear Parishioners of St. Michael's Parish,

My thoughts are constantly with our parishioners and if everyone is happy with the state of our parish. I ask myself am I satisfied—would God be satisfied? Maybe my answer lies somewhere in the middle. I think that the Sunday mass attendance could be much better. We have always tried to convince people that there is no substitute for gathering in church each Sunday. I think that we have had a good number of spiritual retreats, talks, guests, and special masses during the past few years. Our parish has welcomed many guests and missionaries and I think that each of our guests, in his or her own way, has given much to us so that the ears of our souls were opened and our souls refreshed.

It is especially important for parents who have children in our school to show by example how important the sacraments are. Teaching, through their own example, how important it is to encounter Christ is the best way.

It seems to me that at times sadly our people do not know as much about the sacraments and our faith as they should. The sacraments are not to be regarded as a formality. They are the spiritual content of our faith. Last year, the number of engaged couples who had been living together before marriage especially saddened me. Why is this taking place? How do the parents influence this issue? Do the parents just overlook this, and if they do, then why? Certain moral principles and values have been in existence for years. We cannot overlook or ignore them and time cannot change them. St. Paul says, "Christ is the same, yesterday, today, and tomorrow".

When you choose godparents, sponsors, and marriages witnesses, please choose individuals who are practicing Catholics. The sacraments are about witnessing our faith, not about gifts, money, or appearances! Our mass schedule is 5:30 P.M. on Saturdays and 7:30, 9:00, 10:30am and 12Noon, 1:30pm 8:00pm on Sundays. Is this satisfactory? Is the schedule just an excuse for some to miss mass, or does something else get in the way? I think that just as the Eucharist is a sacrifice, so is it a sacrifice to come to mass. We are called to leave everything and come to Christ. Are you satisfied with the spirituality of our parish community? What should be changed, added, or improved? Please tell us. We always welcome and value your input. What do you think? I am not talking about complaints, but rather about constructive criticism for the good of all, and especially for the generations to come.

The quality of our lives depends on the quality of our spirituality, and that is why we ask for your thoughts, suggestions, and ideas. You may contact us directly.

Take some time and give us your ideas and your spiritual strength, but please be less critical and more constructive. Watch what you say. Do not speak badly about people. If you cannot do good, then do not do evil either. Everyone likes to enjoy a good reputation. Everyone loves to be loved. When you criticize, do so with love.

FR. MINHYUN

Dear Parishioners,

Well, I am back in South Carolina preparing for all that needs to be done to enhance my spirit of becoming a Chaplain for our Military Troops. This does not only involve the enhancement of spiritual books and classes but is also a very physical endeavor of which I stated last week is getting quite difficult as the years go by. I have always thought of myself as a fit active person, walking, hiking, running, bike riding, swimming and many other social sports, but when it comes to our military I must tell you Everyone is in top shape and if your not in the beginning of your tour you will be at the end of it. I have the best nights sleep after each day here.

We will be just getting into Phase I of II and I look forward to it, I know I am seriously needed by the men and women who have so lovingly given up their lives for OUR Country. To our Troops I feel that God is silently thought of and prayed to, but, my ideal is that you speak and live the words of our Lord daily and know he is standing right by your side protecting you, loving you and will never leave you. This, is what I wish each of our troops to know and realize.

I again just wanted to remind you that I am in daily contact with the Priests and Staff at the rectory. If any problem arises I am right on top of it. I ask you to realize that I do miss talking with you and listening to your concerns and compliments about church. You, my dear parishioners are in my heart and soul and thought of daily with blessings and prayers. Please remain praying for me while I am here and I shall do the same. May God Bless you and your families and may the good Lord guild me through this new phase of my life.

FR. MINHYUN

Notre Dame Academy is fully accredited, faith-filled, peaceable school environment that has been enriching the hearts and minds of students since 1991.*

Saint Michael's Food Pantry

.....HELP...We could use non-perishable foods, pasta, pasta sauce, gravy, vegetables, peanut butter, jelly, cereals, powdered milk, meats in a can, soups, beans, goya products etc. And, we can always use the Shop-Rite Gift Cards which allows the poor of the community to shop for the foods that they are accustomed to. Thank you for all you do for the poor of this community, it is very much appreciated especially by the children who come in with their parents, they always say they hope they got Corn Flakes

Cereal...imagine a box of cereal on the mind of a five year old child....we have a long way to go for the people of this country when children seek Corn Flakes in their little innocent minds instead of the playful times children should be thinking about never food. Thank you for all your help FEEDING THE poor of this community.

The Presentation of The Lord Saturday, February 02nd, 2019

At the end of the fourth century, a woman named Etheria made a pilgrimage to Jerusalem. Her journal, discovered in 1887, gives an unprecedented glimpse of liturgical life there. Among the celebrations she describes is the Epiphany, the observance of Christ's birth, and the gala procession in honor of his Presentation in the Temple 40 days later. Under the Mosaic Law, a woman was ritually "unclean" for 40 days after childbirth, when she was to present herself to the priests and offer sacrifice—her "purification." Contact with anyone who had brushed against mystery—birth or death—excluded a person from Jewish worship. This feast emphasizes Jesus' first appearance in the Temple more than Mary's purification.

The observance spread throughout the Western Church in the fifth and sixth centuries. Because the Church in the West celebrated Jesus' birth on December 25, the Presentation was moved to February 2, 40 days after Christmas.

At the beginning of the eighth century, Pope Sergius inaugurated a candlelight procession; at the end of the same century the blessing and distribution of candles which continues to this day became part of the celebration, giving the feast its popular name: Candlemas.

In Reflection....

In Luke's account, Jesus was welcomed in the temple by two elderly people, Simeon and the widow Anna. They embody Israel in their patient expectation; they acknowledge the infant Jesus as the long-awaited Messiah. Early references to the Roman feast dub it the feast of Saint Simeon, the old man who burst into a song of joy which the Church still sings at day's end.
